

(12.17) Tue 作业 Key

非谓语—分词讲义

专项练习一

1-25	ADCAA	CDBBC	ADCAB	CADCC	ADAAB
26-50	BDCBD	BBBAA	ACAAC	DBCBB	BABCC

专项练习二

1. embarrassing; to answer
2. to have
3. to be sleeping
4. cultivated
5. to be writing/to have written
6. to have crashed
7. to be raining
8. to be sleeping
9. to be held
10. to be given
11. to be taken
12. to drink
13. to blame
14. looking
15. trying
16. to do; to be done
17. Being asked
18. being exposed
19. talking
20. Doing
21. Connecting
22. being
23. looking
24. revealing
25. not to

B2U2 同步校本 P48-53

Reading D 卷

Grammar

Schools unite to stop bullying

- | | | | | |
|----------------|---------------|--------------|-------------|-------------------|
| 1. organised | 2. supporting | 3. including | 4. repeated | 5. conducted |
| 6. frustrating | 7. lasting | 8. trusted | 9. doing | 10. being bullied |

Vocabulary

Papers, please

1-5 BKJEC 6-10 FAGDH

1.

1. assessment
2. judgment
3. movement
4. argument
5. development
6. assignment
7. employment
8. agreement

II.

1. ability
2. minority
3. responsibility
4. gravity
5. fragility
6. anxiety
7. society
8. variety

III.

1. 1) A few others, including Britain, France and Ireland, cancelled them all.
2) Yet most of the world's best-performing school systems keep some kind of high-stakes tests, and for good reason.
2. mess, start, stay, test, press, grade, question, measure, study, run, rate, reason, work, bias, mark, home, stand, end, waste, try, project, time, hand, advance, change

Reading

Are exams the best way to test pupils?

Words in context

I.

1. flip
2. one-off
3. format
4. dread
5. assess
6. input

II.

1. encouraged
2. alternative
3. pressure
4. reliable
5. cheating
6. improve
7. monitored
8. memorise

9. unfair
10. stressful

Reading comprehension

1. To lead to the argument by listing both the advantages and disadvantages of exams.
2. The ability to store and remember information, and to cope with pressure.
3. Because once exams are over, pupils can relax for a while.
4. To monitor pupils' progress throughout the year.
5. By spending more time learning all the wonderful details of their subject.
6. When he/she feels anxious or did not sleep well the night before.
7. The people who don't think exams are the best way to test pupils outnumber the people who think they are.

Sentence structures

1. They read the passage, carefully underlining the words they didn't know.
2. If exams are well designed, it can be a good way to judge pupils' command of what they have learned.
3. Some pupils get very nervous when taking an exam, and cannot do as well as they should.

Text structure

1. know their subjects
2. a fair way
3. relax for a while
4. one-off
5. throughout the year
6. as well as they should/could
7. a lot of time and energy
8. enjoy learning